Hunter Education Class

Shell Lake Hunter Education classes begin April 2. The course will instill knowledge, skill and attitude to be a safe, ethical and responsible hunter. Classes will cover firearm safety in the home and afield, knowledge of firearms and hunting equipment, basic shooting and hunting skills, hunting preparation and survival skills.

Classes will begin Tuesday, April 2 with student registration at 6:30 pm at the Shell Lake High School. Additional classes will be 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm on April 4, 9 and 11. Saturday, April 6 is a field range day at the Indianhead Rifle and Pistol Club from 8:30 am to 12:00 pm. If you have questions regarding the Shell Lake course please contact John Haack at 715-645-2064.

Students should be at least 11 years old. Parents, guardians and other adults are encouraged to enroll and participate if they have not completed a hunter education course. Any person born after January 1, 1973 must have a hunter education certificate to purchase any type of Wisconsin hunting license. To pre-register go to <http://dnr.wi.gov/education/outdoorskills/idcheck.html> All students will need a DNR customer ID number for this class. Students who don't already have a customer ID can obtain theirs on the DNR Go Wild website or by calling 1-888-936-7463. A parent or guardian must sign the course registration form and bring $10 cash the first night of class. The course is sponsored by the Wisconsin DNR and local volunteer instructors.
