"Anchors Aweigh" High school Play

Thirty high school actors and support crew are busily rehearsing Anchors Aweigh, a comical farce that takes place on a vintage cruise ship—the S.S. Flounder. The cast includes Captain Cregg and his very able crew, a prince and his valet, two stowaways, a scary queen of crime and her cohort, a romance novelist and her depressed secretary, some single guys and girls looking for romance, the guys' mother, a reporter and her reluctant husband, and two elderly ladies who want some R and R. This delightful show takes the stage at the Erika Quam Memorial Theatre March 22 and 23 at 7:00 and March 25 at 2:00. For reservations call Shell Lake High School. Tickets are $5.00. (You can add a phone number or change the place to call for reservations.)
